N Y Times Neediest Cases Fund

Dear "Fund",

This is our 50th consecutive donation. We wish we could afford a larger one, but....

Sincerely,

Thanksgiving, 2011

The Estate of

Dear NY Times Neediest,

As you may or may not know, _____ passed away on Sunday, November 14, 2010. She was an amazing woman—full of grace, knowledge, humor and love. She played the cello for small, private affairs and for the general public as well. She educated many and helped promote healing for others in her community through her music and through her life.

And she gave—in her professional, in her daily personal life—and now, after her passing.

_____ asked that I, _____, donate a portion of my inheritance to specific organization and foundations in her name—ones she appreciated during her life, and some who were integral to her life's work and mission. You are receiving this letter and this check because you are one of these groups.

Her wish is that this money might assist you in taking your message, project or art to others who are in need of your inspiration.

Thank you for being such an important part of her life.

Sincerely,

November 29th, 2011

To Whom It May Concern:

Please find enclosed my annual contribution to the NY Times Neediest Cases Fund. I have contributed for the past 60 years and continue to feel that your Fund is a worthwhile organization to support.

Thank you on behalf of all those who are helped by your efforts.

Season's Greetings

Very truly yours,

NY Times Neediest Cases Fund

Dear Sir/Madam:

Since time immemorial, we have contributed to your fund, marking it with $2 for each year of our marriage. My dear wife passed away last year, but Dec. 24th of this year would have been our 72nd anniversary. In her memory, please find enclosed a check for $144 to mark this occasion.

Sincerely,

Dear Sirs,

This is the twenty eighth year that I am sending you a contribution in memory of my grandmother, It is a practice that I started after her death in 1984. As in previous years, I am requesting that my contribution be earmarked for a program that supports the homebound elderly in recognition of her concern for those less fortunate than she was.

As a survivor of the Holocaust, my grandmother faced incredible adversity in her own life yet always was concerned about the welfare of those around her, especially the elderly who didn't have loving and caring families as she had. I would like to think that this small gesture that I am making in her memory would have pleased her.

Sincerely yours,

We are pleased to be able to donate $50,000 this year to the New York Times Neediest Cases Fund, and thus to the supported programs and agencies that reach out in a very personal way to help many of the city's neediest children, disabled and elderly. We wish you a successful and productive year.

Please acknowledge receipt by return letter*.

Best regards,

Please be aware that this donation is contingent on the promise that you will not share with other entities, sell or trade our contact information.

To the Neediest

Delighted at ages.
91 and 93 to still be able to make our annual contribution.

14 November 2011

Please accept my 79th Annual Contribution

Please acknowledge to above address

Thank you

This donation is in memory of my husband, who passed away on October 16, 2011. He was a contributor for many years, and I intend to continue the tradition.

Sincerely yours,

To the N.Y. Times Neediest Case Fund—for memory & honor of my father, who was a homeless
child on our city streets

Dear New York Times,

I know this money will do somebody some good.

I and my husband
are devoted readers
and subscribers.

Life would be vastly diminished without your paper.

Please keep the nation's problems front & center -
"a la today" "The Damage of 2011"

editorial.

Warm regard

Dallas, Texas

A season of tradition and closeness of heart... where time and distance know no boundaries.

Best Wishes

P.S. Please use my money where it is most needed - U.S.A. or other.

A personal note:

Dear, wonderful Times Neediest Cases,

Once again I enclose a check in memory of my mother,

, who also thought this was an essential part of Christmas - by helping our neighbors whose stories you told us. May you keep doing this great work for another 200 years!

At age 91, and with my husband newly entered into a nursing home,
I can only give the enclosed $50.

Thank you for the opportunity and Happy New Year.

To the Neediest Cases Fund-

It is our pleasure to send this donation in the hope that it will come to the aid of some needy person struggling in these tough times.

Many thanks for all you do to help each year. We are deeply blessed to be on the giving end once again this year.

Best wishes-

READ THE EDITORIAL "A ROOM OF HER OWN" IN 11/12 PAPER AND IT REALLY TOUCHED ME. I GREW UP IN BROOKLYN
AND ATTENDED CATHOLIC SCHOOLS. SO MANY PEOPLE HELPED AND ENCOURAGED ME ALONG THE WAY.

TO NATELY I SAY: "YOU GO, GIRL!"

11/27/2011

Please accept my donation for 2011. I've been reading the stories since I was a girl and always find them very moving.
Sincerely,

December, 2011

Enclosed please find our annual contribution to the New York Times Neediest Cases Fund. When we began making our contributions it was in honor of my husband's parents, and

In 2008 it was in memory of and in honor of. Sadly, this year 2011, it is in memory of both and.

As sad as it is for us to make this donation in "memory of", we know my husband's parents would be pleased with the contribution to the Fund.

11/23/11

Sirs,

As we do each year
for the last 26 years,
please find enclosed a check equally $10 for each year of our marriage.

Dear NY Times Neediest
Fund

Please register this donation in memory of my parents,

- two proud New Yorkers who cared about other people.

Sincerely,

P.S. I've been donating since I was 11 - you're doing a worthwhile job.

Enclosed is our check in the amount of $1,000 in memory of our daughter and our parents.
We have been contributing to your fund since 1967.

Dec 7, 2011

NY Times Neediest Cases Fund.

Enclosed is my check for this years drive - - I have been making contributions since I was a student at Horace Mann School in 1944 And I don't think I've missed a year.

I hope all New Yorkers will join the cause - The problems never abate and I congratulate the Times for their support.

Sincerely

I'm
Every year since age 1
I have been sending you $1 for each year of my age. This donation was started by my dad
I am.

Sending this in memory of him. He always reminded me of how lucky I was to be able to give rather than receive.

Please use this to help
some worthy senior citizen.

This year I am able to send $100 more - so I am enclosing $178.
Sincerely

Although I'm out of state
now, the city & the people remain in my heart - Good Luck & Happy holidays -
The Times does a great service!
